MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Case 32254 -- Fred Z. Launags

1. On 29 May 1969 subject called the Portland Resident Agency to request a loan of a portable typewriter owned by the Portland Resident Agent. He was told that the typewriter was being used by the Portland Resident Agent's daughter during the school year and would not be available for some time.
2. Launags informed us at the time that he is currently employed in an unstated capacity by the Portland Hilton Hotel. He said that he had been working in the woods, apparently on tree reforestation, in the vicinity of Morton, Washington until 15 May 1969 when such activities ceased. Prior to working in the Morton, Washington area he had worked in the forests in the Oregon Coastal Range out of Newport, Oregon.
3. Launags informed us that he was well and was enjoying his stay in the Pacific Northwest. He had no complaints to offer at the time of his telephone call.
